"You have done so much for me. Without you, I would never have been able to apply to law school or manage the IB DP so well."

"I really enjoyed all the sessions we had together. Without your help, I wouldn't be the student I am today. My grammar has improved significantly across the past two years under your guidance and I would love to say thank you."

"... but Vici is my favourite (editor). She is a persistent perfectionist with unchallenged skills. Decades of teaching English around the globe have given her an insight into and command of the proper use of the language that make her a treasure for a writer. Each one of my three books bear the results of her valued talent." — Author
